
WESTERN HISTORY ASSOCIATION 2012 AWARDS

BOOK AWARDS

THE JOHN C. EWERS PRIZE

The Western History Association announces the Ewers Book Award given biennially for the best published book on the North American (including Mexico) Indian ethnohistory. The award is $500 to the author and a certificate to the publisher. The award is supported by the Ewers family and administered by the Western History Association. Publishers may submit more than one title. Publishers or authors should submit a letter of nomination and a copy of the book to each member of the award committee (see below).

To be eligible for the award in 2012, the book must have been published in 2010 or 2011.

Please check back for updated committee member contact information in November of 2011. Materials must be submitted to all three committee members to be considered. All submission materials must be received by the deadline.

Application deadline: July 1, 2012

No award given in 2011.
