

The Western History Association announces the Ewers Book Award given biennially for the best published book on North American (including Mexico) Indian ethnohistory. The award is $500 to the author and a certificate to the publisher. The award is supported by the Ewers family and administered by the Western History Association. Publishers may submit more than one title. Publishers or authors should submit a letter of nomination and a copy of the book to each member of the award committee (see below).

To be eligible for the award in 2010, the book must have been published in 2008 or 2009.

Application Deadline: July 16, 2010
