

In recognition of Martin Ridge's long service to both the Western History Association and the Huntington Library, this $2,000, one-month fellowship to the Huntington has been established in his honor. Applicants should send a two-to-three page description of their project, specifying the materials they plan to consult at the Huntington and indicating progress to date on the project, as well as a brief curriculum vitae, to each member of the award committee (below). Recipients of the fellowship are expected to be in continuous residence at the Huntington for one month. Ph.D. or equivalent or a doctoral student at the dissertation stage are eligible to apply. The award, announced at the annual conference in October, will be for the following calendar year.
